

September Worship Summaries Sanctuary Services at I Iam

September 17 - First day of RE classes! Rev. Rebecca will preach "Becoming Real" - Perhaps the most important thing we can do in life is to be our true self. Often trivialized, the reality of being authentic includes learning how to overcome shame, develop skills of discernment and listening to our inner truth. Rev. Rebecca will offer her perspective on authenticity as an act of resistance and spiritual necessity.

September 24 - Join our guest preacher, Rev. Daniel Kanter as we focus our hearts and minds on "Faith for the Unbeliever." How can we be people of faith without the overarching system of belief that other traditions hold? We explore what faith might be for the 'unbeliever' and how we live faithful lives. Rev. Dr. Daniel Kanter is the senior minister of First Unitarian Church of Dallas which is one of the largest UU churches in the country. He is currently on sabbatical as the Resident Fellow at Harvard Divinity School. His book Faith for the Unbeliever, Skinner House Books, was published in May and is available today.

Join us for Communion - We have celebrated communion here following worship four times a year for nearly 300 years. It is an open, inclusive table, meaning all are welcome to participate regardless of what you believe. Please join us this Sunday for Communion immediately following regular worship.
